

International Tax Conference

CONFERENCE IN HONOR OF PROFESSOR HUGH AULT

Saturday September 29, 2012,
Sheraton – BOSTON

On the occasion of the 2012 Boston Congress of the International Fiscal Association, you are invited to join international tax experts from around the world to discuss Professor Hugh Ault's work and important international tax issues during a one-day conference that will be held on the Saturday preceding the Congress.

Professor Hugh Ault, who is currently a Senior Adviser at the OECD and Professor at Boston College Law School, has made significant contributions to international tax over a 40-year career as a teacher, scholar, mentor and adviser. He has written extensively on US tax, comparative tax law and international tax issues. He has been a very active member of IFA and is currently the Chair of the Jury that awards the Mitchell B. Carroll Prize.

Speakers will include:

- Brian Arnold, Canadian Tax Foundation
- Reuven Avi-Yonah, University of Michigan
- Philip Baker, Grays Inn Tax Chambers
- Mary Bennett, Baker & McKenzie
- Wei Cui, China University of Political Science and Law
- Michael Lang, Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration
- Yoshiro Masui, University of Tokyo
- Peter Melz, University of Stockholm
- Diane Ring, Boston College Law School
- David Rosenbloom, New York University Law School
- Jacques Sasseville, OECD
- Wolfgang Schön, Max Planck Institute
- Stephen Shay, Harvard Law School
- Richard Vann, Sydney Law School
- Frans Vanistendael, IBFD
- Stef Van Weeghel, University of Amsterdam
- Alvin Warren, Harvard Law School

Topics that will be discussed during the conference include:

- International allocation of the corporate tax base
- Treatment of hybrid entities under tax treaties
- Arbitration
- Nondiscrimination
- Comparative taxation: how income tax systems deal differently with similar issues

This event is sponsored by Bingham McCutchen LLP, Boston, the Harvard Law School Fund for Tax and Fiscal Research, the OECD, the International Bureau for Fiscal Documentation and Boston College Law School.

The registration fee for that one-day conference is US$ 100 (US$ 85 for registrations before 31 May 2012). This includes refreshment breaks and lunch. In order to avoid disappointment, please register early as there is a limited number of available seats.
