

Arco Bobeldijk

Partner
Tax adviser

Arco C.P. Bobeldijk, tax expert, is co-chair of Loyens & Loeff's Corporate Tax Services practice and a member of the Corporate Restructuring & Insolvency Team, the Public Enterprises Team and the contact person for Loyens & Loeff's Tax Expert Team.

He advises Dutch and foreign listed multinationals as well as large privately owned companies, on corporate income tax, mergers and acquisitions, reorganisations, (financial) restructurings and tax governance. In the case of privately owned companies, he is also involved in advising the shareholders. He advises governments on the consequences of introducing corporate income tax liability.

Arco is a professor of Corporate Tax at the Nyenrode Business University and a member of the Nyenrode Corporate Governance Institute. He speaks regularly at seminars, has written numerous articles, and is a regular contributor to two leading Dutch (fiscal) publications.

T: +31 20 578 54 14

M: +31 6 51 85 24 69

E: arco.bobeldijk@loyensloeff.com