Lecturer:

Prof. Stephen Shay
(USA)

Stephen Shay is the Paulus Endowment Senior Tax Fellow and Adjunct Professor at Boston College Law School. He is the IBFD Visiting Global Scholar for 2024-25.

Mr. Shay has served as Deputy Assistant Secretary for International Tax Affairs in the United States Department of the Treasury and is a retired partner of Ropes & Gray LLP where he practiced international tax law for over two decades. He has been a Professor of Practice at Harvard Law School and a Lecturer at Yale Law School, Oxford University (MSc. in Taxation), University of Miami School of Law Graduate Tax Program, and the Leiden International Tax Institute.

Mr. Shay has served as an expert consultant to the United Nations and International Monetary Fund and he regularly provides pro bono technical assistance to governments of low-income countries through the auspices of the International Senior Lawyers Project. He has testified as an expert on U.S. international tax law in U.S. Federal and State courts, in tax cases in Australia, Ireland and New Zealand, and before tribunals in investor-state arbitrations.

Mr. Shay serves on the Executive Committee of the New York State Bar Association Tax Section, the Leadership Council of the Harvard Law School Wilmer Hale Legal Services Center, and the Amicus Committee of the American College of Tax Counsel. He is admitted to practice in New York and Massachusetts.
